Naples, April 27, N. S.

THE King has appointed M. Bonito, Brother to the Duke of the Iſola, who lately came hither from Spain, Lieutenant-General of his Army, and Inſpector-General of the Infantry. On the 24th the Embarkation of the large Train of 40 Battery Cannons, 20 Mortars, and Ammunition, was entirely finiſhed on board of 16 Tranſports. They have embarked on Board of three Tranſports 4000 Quintals of Gunpowder; and it is ſaid the whole Convoy is to ſail eſcorted by two Row Boats.

Florence May 4, N. S. In Purſuance of the March of the Spaniſh and Neapolitan Troops under the Duke of Modena and M. de Gages from Montale, the firſt Column, conſiſting of about 8000 Men, arrived on the 25th paſt at Caſtle Nuouo of Garfagnana, and in their Way ſummoned the Caſtle of Monte Alfonſo to ſurrender; the Garriſon of which, conſiſting of about 100 Croatians, were made Priſoners of War; having placed ſome of their own Troops therein, and in the ſmall Fort of Verncola, both belonging to the Dutchy of Modena, they proceeded in their March, and on the 30th arrived at Ponte Moriano in the Suburbs of Lucca, and were to be followed by the reſt of the Army. On the 26th M. de Gages diſpatched a Letter to that Republick, requiring of them the Paſſage and the neceſſary Forage for the Troops under his Command, promiſing that they ſhould obſerve a very exact Diſcipline, and pay in ready Money for what they ſhould have Occaſion. On the 27th the Republick ſent the Chevalier Bernardini to compliment the Duke of Modena and M. de Gages, who gave him Aſſurances, that purſuant to his Orders from the Court of Spain, his Troops were not in the leaſt to diſturb the Tranquility of the Republick, and deſired him to repeat the ſame to the Republick, in order to remove the Apprehenſion which they ſeemed to be under. The Government of Lucca however ſeems greatly perplexed on Account of that Army, inſomuch that amongſt other Precautions they have mounted their Artillery round the Walls of that City, and introduced into it a large Number of their Militia. On the 1ſt Inſtant M. Silva, the Spaniſh and Neapolitan Conſul at Leghorn, arrived here with a Letter from M. de Gages to the Regency, acknowledging his Thanks for the Orders already given to the Commiſſary of Pietra Santa to ſupply his Troops with Forage in their March, and to ask a Paſſage for the Invalids, Baggage, and the Eſcorte from the Eccleſiaſtical State, that is to follow the Army. An extraordinary Council of Regency was ſummoned that Evening, in which it was agreed to grant M. de Gages's Requeſt; but on Condition that the Invalids ſhould paſs by ſmall Parties, and without Arms; and the ſame Evening M. Capponi, Colonel of one of the Great Duke's Regiments of Militia, was by the Regency ſent to carry their Anſwer to M. de Gages. The ſame Night M. Silva diſpatched an Expreſs to that General with the Reſult as above. Prince Lobcowitz remains with the Auſtrian Troops at Parma, and has detached from thence a Body of 3000 Men under the Command of M. Gorani, who, by forced Marches and extraordinary Encouragements to the Soldiers, arrived on the 28th paſt in the Lunigiana: He has reinforced the Garriſons of Aulla, Lavenza, &c. and made himſelf Maſter of the important Paſſages and Poſts on the Vallies of the River Magra, which lead by Sarzana to the Genoeſe State. On the 3d Inſtant the Regency received an Expreſs from the Governor of Pontremoli, with Notice of the Arrival and Diſtribution of the ſaid Auſtrian Detachment in that Diſtrict.

Lisbon, May 14, N. S. On the 2d Inſtant the Kouli Kan Privateer came in from a Cruize between the Canary Iſlands and Madeira, where the Captain ſays he was chaſed by eight French Men of War. After he had the good Fortune to get clear of them, he fell in with a Spaniſh Ship called the St. Joſeph e Noſtra Santa de la Granada, Captain John Francis de Lama, which he took and brought in with him. The Convoy from England, with the Ships for Port and Lisbon, are arrived. Thoſe for this Harbour came in the 3d Inſtant, under Convoy of his Majeſty's Ship Ludlow Caſtle. They parted Company with Rear-Admiral Medley in the Latitude of Cape Finiſter the 29th of April, N. S. with a fair Wind for Gibraltar. We have juſt now a Report of five French Men of War appearing off the Bar.

Hague, May 25, N. S. By our Accounts from the Allied Army of the 23d Inſtant, it remained encamped at Leſſines. Though we receive very few Particulars of the Progreſs of the Siege

( Price Two-Pence. )

Siege of Tournay, all Accounts ſeem to agree in general, that the Garriſon continues to make a gallant Defence, and that the Ground the Beſiegers have hitherto gained, has coſt them dear. The freſheſt Advices from the Allied Army on the Rhine, report it to be at preſent encamped in an advantageous Poſition near Neuwied, where it is ſuppoſed it will wait the Arrival of Marſhal Traun. The Duke of Aremberg has ſollicited and obtained his Demiſſion of that Command, and will be ſucceeded therein by Count Bathiani.

Whitehall, May 18.

On Tueſday laſt in the Afternoon, a Meſſenger arrived here, with an Account, that his Majeſty landed at Helvoetſluys, in perfect Health, on Sunday in the Forenoon, and ſoon after proceeded on his Journey to Hanover.

On Wedneſday their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices met at the Cockpit, and opened their Commiſſion; when they were pleaſed to appoint Andrew Stone and Thomas Ramſden, Eſqs. to be their Secretaries.

Admiralty-Office, April 30, 1745.

His Majeſty having been graciouſly pleaſed, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to eſtabliſh certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commiſſion and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: Theſe are to give Notice, that Copies of the ſaid Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy at Chatham, Portſmouth, and Plymouth; as alſo with the Clerks of the Checque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerneſs; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinſale; where all ſuch Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the ſaid Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpoſe. But ſuch Widows as live at too great a Diſtance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr. Charles Fearne, at the Admiralty Office, who will ſend them all neceſſary Information. And the Governors of the ſaid Charity intending to diſtribute to the Sea Officers Widows, whoſe Circumſtances come within the Rules of the Eſtabliſhment, ſuch Sums as the Funds of the ſaid Charity ſhall produce for a Year ending the 31ſt Day of May next, as ſoon as the Pay-books can be made up, and the Money ſhall be iſſued into the Pay Maſter's Hands for that Purpoſe; This is to give Notice, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do ſo as ſoon as poſſible; and that all ſuch Widows whoſe Claims have been already allowed, may ſend or bring to this Office, by the 31ſt of next Month, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Penſion or Bounty.

General-Poſt-Office, October 19, 1744.

Publick Notice is hereby given, to all whom it may concern, That the Mail for Flanders, which uſed to go out from this Office upon Monday Night, will not go out till the Tueſday Night of every Week for the Time to come, or till Orders ſhall be given to the contrary.

By Command of the Poſt-Maſter-General,

Stamp-Office, Lincoln's Inn, May 17, 1745.

Whereas by an Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intitled, (amongſt other Things) An Act for giving farther Time for the Payment of the Duties omitted to be paid for the Indentures or Contracts of Clerks and Apprentices, and for the further inforcing the Payment of the ſaid Duties, it is Enacted, That on Payment of the ſaid Duties (which have been ſo omitted to be paid) on or before the firſt Day of Auguſt next, and upon tendring to be ſtampt ſuch Indentures and Contracts at the ſame Time, or at any Time before the 29th of September next, that the ſaid Indentures

and Contracts shall be good, and the Clerks, Apprentices or Servants shall be capable of exercising their Trades or Employments as fully as if the said Duties had been paid within the Times limited by two several Acts of Parliament of the 8th and 9th Years of Queen Anne.

And for the better enforcing the Payment of the said Duties, it is Enacted, That after the 24th of June next, if any Master or Mistress shall neglect to pay the said Duties within the Times limited by the said Acts, they shall for every such Neglect forfeit and pay double the Duties charged and directed to be paid by the said former Acts (over and above all Penalties and Forfeitures thereby inflicted) for all Moneys which shall after the said 24th of June be given, paid, contracted, or agreed for, with or in Relation to every such Clerk, &c. to be paid by the said Masters and Mistresses; and if they shall neglect to pay the said Duties charged by the said former Acts, within the Times therein limitted, and any such Clerk, Apprentice or Servant shall in that Case pay the said Duties and the Penalties incurred by this Act, within one Year after the same shall become charged and made payable thereby, (such Master or Mistress not having then paid the same, although required so to do) that then it should be lawful for the Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, within three Months after such Payment, to demand of the Master or Mistress, their Executors or Administrators, the Money paid to them in respect of such Clerkship, Apprenticeship or Servitude: And in case the Moneys shall not be paid, within three Months after such Demand made, it shall be lawful for the Clerk, Apprentice or Servant to sue for the same against the Master or Mistress, their Executors or Administrators; and after Payment of the said Duties, Penalties and Forfeitures, the Clerk, Apprentice or Servant shall be discharged from their Clerkship, Apprenticeship and Service, and from all Actions and Damages for not serving their Time, and shall have the Advantage of the Time they shall have served such Master or Mistress, as they might have done in case of any Assignment or turning over to any new Master or Mistress.

The Commissioners for managing his Majesty's Stamp Duties give this publick Notice, that no Person may incur the Penalties mentioned in the said Clause.

The Governors of the Charity for the Relief of Poor Widows and Children of Clergymen, do hereby give Notice, that they will begin to pay the Widows Pensions on Wednesday in the Whitsun Week, between the Hours of Ten and One of the Clock, at the Corporation house in Salisbury-Court Fleet-street, and continue to pay on Thursday and Friday in the same Week, on every Wednesday for one Month at the same Place, during the same Hours; and afterwards on the first Wednesday in every Month till Michaelmas, at the House of Mr. Thomas Harrison, Treasurer, in Fenchurch street.
